

How Should You Prepare?

- Individuals with Special Needs

links

Be Prepared Ohio 2.0 Conference

- General Emergency Preparedness
- Pandemic Influenza Preparedness
- Planning Resources

General Emergency Preparedness

- Prepare Yourself: Disaster Readiness Tips for People with Disabilities
A planning guide from the National Organization on Disability.
- Additional planning guides from the National Organization on Disability.
- Guide to Preparing for Disaster for People with Disabilities and Other Special Needs
FEMA planning guide for individuals with special needs.

Pandemic Influenza Preparedness

General Information about Pandemic Influenza

- Pandemic Influenza
- Community Strategy for Pandemic Influenza Mitigation
- CDC's interim guidance regarding use of face masks to prevent the spread of pandemic influenza

Planning Resources

Norwood City Health Department is a member of the Emergency Preparedness Collaborative. The Collaborative is composed of first responders and other agencies that serve individuals needing special assistance. The Collaborative is working to resolve communication, transportation and sheltering issues that arise during emergencies.